DTDC Plans to Increase Global Revenues to 18%

MUMBAI Home-grown express courier company DTDC, which has done a string of global acquisitions and tie-ups, aims to increase the share of revenues from the high margin international operations to 18% in the next two years, a top official of the company said. "We are at 12%, and the share should rise to 17-18% in two years...." DTDC Executive Director Abhishek Chakraborty said. The margins from the international operations are higher than the domestic ones, he said. DTDC said its latest acquisition, Bangalore-based Nikkos Logistics, is likely to boost its global operations.
